

SING-ALONG LYRIC SHEET

Five Little Clovers

Learning: Subtraction / counting down from 5

Five little clovers growing in a row,
The wind came along and one had to go!
Four little clovers, happy as can be,
The wind came along – now there are three!
Three little clovers under skies of blue,
The wind came along – now there are two!
Two little clovers dancing in the sun,
The wind came along – now there is one!
One little clover, standing all alone,
Kat planted more and now the patch has GROWN!
Five little clovers growing in a row—
The WildPatch garden puts on quite a show!

Parent tip: sing twice – once listening, once with your little one echoing the chorus.
